

Declaration of interests for EMIS NUG Trustees, committee members and NUG employees

The purpose of this Declaration of Interests is to provide information on any pecuniary or non-pecuniary personal or professional interest or other material benefit which a member receives which might reasonably be thought by others to influence his or her actions, speeches or votes in or on behalf of the EMIS National User Group or actions taken in his or her capacity as a member of the EMIS National User Group Committee. It should be reviewed before each committee meeting and any changes emailed in advance to the Office Manager (see details below) so that the chair of the meeting can decide on how any competing interests will be managed. The information submitted will be held by the EMIS NUG for personnel or other reasons specified on this form and to comply with the organisation's policies. This information may be held in both manual and electronic form in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. Information may be disclosed to third parties in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and published in registers that the EMIS NUG holds.

Name:		Dave Mayren
Position within, or relationship with, the EMIS NUG:		Committee Member
Detail of interests held (complete all that are applicable):
Type of Interest* <small>*See reverse of form for details</small>	Description of Interest (including for indirect interests, details of the relationship with the person who has the interest)	Date interest relates From & To		Actions to be taken to mitigate risk (to be agreed with the Chair of the Board of Trustees and the NUG Group manager)
Financial interest	Manager of Practice/PCN of whose practices are all users of EMIS Web. Member of IM&T sub-committee which is responsible for evaluating and recommending related systems and products locally	Feb 2020	Present

I confirm that the information provided above is complete and correct. I acknowledge that any changes in these declarations must be notified to as soon as practicable and no later than 28 days after the interest arises. I am aware that if I do not make full, accurate and timely declarations then civil, criminal, or internal disciplinary action may result.

I do give my consent for this information to published on registers that the EMIS NUG holds. If consent is NOT given please give reasons:

Signed:

Date: 14/11/2022

Signed: V. J. Young

Position: CHAIR

Date: 22/11/2022

(EMIS NUG Chair of the Board of Trustees/EMIS NUG Manager (delete as appropriate))

Please return to
Lorraine Witherspoon
Group Manager
EMIS National User Group
Suite 25, Enterprise House
Kingsway North
Team Valley, Gateshead NE11 0SR
Email lwitherspoon@emisnug.org
Tel: 0191 487 4571

Please note, the EMIS NUG retains a record of declarations of interests for a minimum of six years after the date on which it expired.

Types of interest

Type of Interest	Description
Financial Interests	This is where an individual may get direct financial benefits from the consequences of a decision. This could, for example, include being: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• A director, including a non-executive director, or senior employee in a private company or public limited company or other organisation which is doing, or which is likely, or possibly seeking to do, business with health or social care organisations;• A shareholder (or similar owner interests), a partner or owner of a private or not-for-profit company, business, partnership or consultancy which is doing, or which is likely, or possibly seeking to do, business with health or social care organisations.• A management consultant for a provider;• In employment;• In receipt of a grant from an organisation;• In receipt of any payments (for example honoraria, one off payments, day allowances or travel or subsistence) from a provider• In receipt of research funding, including grants that may be received by the individual or any organisation in which they have an interest or role; and•
Non-Financial Professional Interests	This is where an individual may obtain a non-financial professional benefit from the consequences of a decision, such as increasing their professional reputation or status or promoting their professional career. This may, for example, include situations where the individual is: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• An advocate for a particular group of patients;• A member of a particular specialist professional body (although routine GP membership of the RCGP, BMA or a medical defence organisation would not usually by itself amount to an interest which needed to be declared);• An advisor for Care Quality Commission (CQC) or National Institute for Health and Care Excellence (NICE);• A medical researcher.
Non-Financial Personal Interests	This is where an individual may benefit personally in ways which are not directly linked to their professional career and do not give rise to a direct financial benefit. This could include, for example, where the individual is: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• A voluntary sector champion for a provider;• A volunteer for a provider;

Type of Interest	Description
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A member of a voluntary sector board or has any other position of authority in or connection with a voluntary sector organisation; • Suffering from a particular condition requiring individually funded treatment; • A member of a lobby or pressure groups with an interest in health.
Indirect Interests	This is where an individual has a close association with an individual who has a financial interest, a non-financial professional interest or a non-financial personal interest in a commissioning decision (as those categories are described above). For example, this should include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Spouse / partner; • Close relative e.g., parent, grandparent, child, grandchild or sibling; • Close friend; • Business partner.